Question: Have you ever had an experience where you have been the victim of injustice?

The world we live in is experiencing an ideological crisis over what constitutes true justice.

Post-Postmodern says

“Justice is served by a complete system overhaul.”

Questions: How do we as Christians listen really, really well to those who would embrace this ideology? What does that look like in your life?

Read Matthew 26:47-56

The “way” of your revolution is even more important than the “reason” for your revolution.
“Yes” to change; “no” to blood in the streets.

Read: Matthew 5:4-6

Questions: How would you define “meekness”? Can you illustrate it by an experience you have had or seen?

It is radical love, not cruel revenge,
that brings justice to the world.
Revolution without the constraint of power brings further injustice.

Read: Psalm 37:8-11

The way of Jesus:

- Pursue justice for all people, even those you don’t agree with.
- Oppose all corruption, not just the corruption that disrupts your self-interests.
- Reject zero tolerance. Embrace radical grace.
- Practice meekness with whatever power you do have.

Questions: Which of these is the most challenging for you? What is one step you can take to shift this?
