

Survival Guide: It's All In Your Attitude

Darcy Siggelkow

Questions: What is the craziest survival guide you have owned or seen? When have you had need of one or what will you most likely need one for?

The foundation for a thriving marriage is to make love a verb.

Read John 13:34

Jesus wants our relationship with him to change the way we relate to those around us.

Question: What does “serving” your church, your community and also your family look like in your life?

Read Philippians 2:1-11

If you are looking at these verses through the lens of marriage:

- FIGHT FOR “WE”, NOT FOR “ME”

Read Matthew 19:5–6

Marriage is a team sport. The problem with some couples is that they've never decided to be a couple.

Question: What is one practical way that makes marriage a team sport?

The conception of two people living together for twenty-five years without having a cross word suggests a lack of spirit only to be admired in sheep.

Sir Alen Patrick Hebert

Reread Philippians 2:3

- SURRENDER THE RIGHT TO BE RIGHT.

Don't let being right talk you out of being kind.

Bob Goff

Question: How does humility influence rights?

Reread Philippians 2:4

- REMEMBER THAT YOUR VICTIM STORY WILL BLIND YOU.

Question: How does life start to look different when you look out for the interests of the other person?

A victim mindset is a problem because it takes complex relationship issues and oversimplifies them.

Question: What is one step you can take that would help those that are closest to you see Jesus in you more clearly?
