

Pursuing the King: Unto Us

Chantalle Alfero

Question: What is the best “birthing story” you know of that didn’t go as expected or planned?

The Christmas Story is a birthing story!

Read Luke 2:8-12

The shepherds were usually considered the lowest of the family, physically dirty and spiritually dirty as well. Yet this is the first people that heard about the birth of King Jesus. Not what is expected for a King.

The humility with which Jesus entered the world foreshadowed his heart for the world.

Andy Stanley

Read Isaiah 9:6

Questions: Which one of these four titles of Jesus is most meaningful to you at this moment? Why?

Jesus, who was more of a king than any other king, came to interact with his people like no other king.

Andy Stanley

Questions: This King is different, and He wants to make a difference in your life. He pursues us. What does it look like in your life to pursue Him back? What do you need to do today to move you toward pursuing Him?