

The Never Ending Journey of Growing Up

Chantalle Alfero

Questions: What was the best road trip you've had? What was the worst? How has the sense of adventure changed for you over time?

Read 1 Corinthians 3:1-9; Hebrews 3:13-14

Question: How would you describe spiritual maturity?

SPIRITUAL MATURITY IS A CONTINUAL PROCESS TO LEAN INTO,
NOT A ONE TIME DESTINATION TO GET TO.

Questions: What are the consequences of seeing spiritual maturity as a destination? What changes when you view it as an on-going process? Would you describe it differently?

Pete Greg shares about the cycle of spiritual maturity going from seeing the wonders of God, to sacrifice of laying things down, to celebration of blessing afterwards, back to seeing the wonders of God.

Questions: Can you name where you are at in this cycle? What hinders you from continuing in the cycle?

It is not possible to be spiritually mature while remaining emotionally immature.

Pete Scazzarro

Question: How does emotional immaturity impact spiritual maturity?

Loving people well is the defining characteristic of a mature Christian.

Pete Scazzarro

Questions: How tolerant are you of the discomfort that is experienced in growth? What do you recognize in your life that you need to give over to the control of the Holy Spirit? What area of your emotional health is God bringing healing and maturity to you currently?